Descrizione

AZIMUT 100 JUMBO "SPECTRE" - EX MEDUSA / MEDUSA G - 2001 / FULL REFIT 2026

SPECTRE, formerly named MEDUSA and MEDUSA G, is an Azimut 100 Jumbo motor yacht currently offered in Dubai. The exact current sales listing identifies an asking price of USD 2,700,000 and describes a comprehensive bow-to-stern refit completed in 2026. The supplied charter brochure quotes AED 6,500 per hour and AED 78,000 per day, with a minimum charter duration of three hours.

Built by Azimut with exterior design by Stefano Righini and original interior design attributed to Ken Freivokh, the yacht has a planing GRP hull and superstructure.

Published exact-yacht data gives an overall length of 30.48 m, beam of 6.58 m, maximum draft of 1.93 m and gross tonnage of 151 GT.

The interior accommodates eight overnight guests in four cabins: a full-beam master suite, one VIP cabin and two twin guest cabins. Current charter information reports up to 30 guests for day events. This commercial day capacity must be confirmed against the yacht's current UAE licence and safety certificate before publication or charter.

Exterior living areas include a spacious aft dining and lounge deck, foredeck sunbathing area and an upper deck with panoramic seating and a Jacuzzi. The refitted interior features renewed finishes, carpets, upholstery, blinds and soft furnishings, together with updated audiovisual, sound, navigation and electronic systems.

Propulsion is provided by two MTU 16V 2000 M91 diesel engines rated at 2,000 hp each. The current sales listing records approximately 2,300 hours on one engine and 4,300 hours on the other. Published exact-yacht performance is approximately 15 knots cruising and 23 knots maximum, with a range of about 700 nautical miles.
